Course Objective	This course is to equip Parents/Gracians to have a biblical understanding of sexuality in the context of today's societal trends. Parents will also learn practical handles in engaging their children of different age groups to talk honestly and openly about this topic on sexuality.
Target Audience	Grace Parents/Gracians
Synopsis	We believe that the area of sexuality does not just involve the next generation, but people from all ages. All of us come from a family, is part of a family, interact with young people or have conversations with others regarding the area of sexuality. It is important that we are aware of the societal trends, and more importantly be equipped to respond biblically and lovingly. Parents will also learn to engage with their children in the different age groups on this sensitive topic.
