Course Objective	To Raise Faith-Based Parents by... a. Learning the Character of God b. Following God-given Directions for Parenting c. Building Trust through i. Relationships ii. Repetition iii. Rebuking d. Choosing God's Sovereignty
Target Audience	Young Families with children 0-12 years.
Synopsis	Fear-driven parenting often focuses on protecting one's children from perceived dangers (physical, emotion, social), sometimes to the point of overprotection or control. In contrast, faith-driven parenting is rooted in biblical principles, with the goal of raising children who love God, and live with faith, integrity and compassion. It is not just about teaching rules but shaping hearts and character in alignment with God's word and mission.
